ANNUAL MEETING OF COUNCIL OF H. D. CLUBS HELD

In the annual meeting of the Medina County Council of the Home Demonstration Clubs, the officers and committee chairman gave reports that signified another successful year of Extension work.

Mrs. Emil Riff, Chairman of Council, told how under her leadership the following council goals had been completed: Financed three trips to District Home Demonstration Associations, financed three trips to State Home Demonstration Association meeting, sponsored a two-day encampment, sponsored a county-wide Exhibit Day, and sponsored the mattress campaign in Medina County.

Other officers reporting were Mrs. Alfred Schweers, Miss Maritima Hardean and Mrs. Louis Oefinger. Mrs. Arnold Balzen of finance committee, Mrs. Louis Oefinger of Yearbook Committee and Mrs. Walter Krenmueller told how their committees had functioned to make Medina County "a little better because Thou didn't make me", as their pledge says.

Interesting was the report, written because of sudden illness in her home, of Mrs. Lonnie Howard, Expansion Chairman. In the last two months Mrs. Howard has worked closely with the Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Velma Hambleton, and two new women's and five new 4-H Clubs have been organized.

One of the new women's clubs, although the "baby" club of the County, is really off to a good start with fourteen peppy members. They now live in the heart of the irrigation district but have come here from several states, so true to their idea of being different they call their club O. M. K. and T. Home Demonstration Club, meaning Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas and Texas, their former homes.

After these annual reports the following officers were elected for the coming year:

Chairman—Mrs. Emil Riff.
Vice-Chairman—Mrs. Lonnie Howard.

Secretary—Miss Maritima Hardean.

Treasurer—Mrs. Alfred Schweers.

Since orchards are to be one of the new demonstrations, Mrs. Charles Schlagle was appointed as chairman of the cooperative buying committee, who with her committee will investigate wholesale prices of fruit trees.

MORE IMPROVEMENTS FOR ONE-SEVENTY-THREE

As part of a $2,600,000 state highway improvement plan, approved by the State Highway Department Tuesday of last week, is the re-conditioning of flexible base and application of base preservative (in other words, paving) of the 8.5-mile extension northwest from Devine in the direction of Hondo. Bids are being advertised for and the contract is to be let at Austin on November 25th.

This is another improvement on which Devine is to be congratulated, and means another assurance that Highway 173 will be eventually built as planned.

County Judge Arthur H. Rothe informs us that this improvement in no way affects the further plan to extend the grading of the Highway to its present northwest terminus some three miles further towards Hondo, or to near the site of the proposed bridge across the Hondo on Highway No. 173, where, with the cooperation of the county, connection by a new and hard surfaced road will connect with the Quihi North-and-South road so as to give travelers to and from Hondo choice of either the Elstone crossing or the Highway 90 bridge, with a hard surface road all the way over both routes. This arrangement is intended to be only temporary, however, until the Highway can be further extended.

FIRE AT BADER HOME

A four o'clock fire alarm aroused a sleeping town early Tuesday morning, November 11th, and the Hondo Volunteer Fire Department made a quick run to the O. J. Bader home on the southwest edge of Hondo. The fire boys dealt effectively with a freakish fire, which started in a clothes closet at the back of the frame house, extended between the walls upward into the attic and over to the center of the house where it burned a large hole in the roof. The fire fighters used the booster truck entirely in quelling the flames, a 2-inch line and small fire plug in the alley back of Alfred Breiten's home being used to keep the tank filled with water.

Mr. Bader informed us that both his house and furniture were covered by insurance. The insurance adjuster was here Wednesday, but Mr. Bader had not been informed as to an estimate of the loss sustained. In addition to damage to the building, some of the furniture was battered in carrying it from the house, and some clothes were destroyed.

For the present, the Bader family has moved its household belongings into the Geo. Muennich home.

QUIHI NOTES

Vacation time, a thing of the past. Work along the usual lines resumed with new vigor and purpose. And a few items of belated news must now be recorded. We found Mrs. Margaret Balzen in new quarters and in fine condition after a rather long siege of a nervous prostration.

—Mrs. Mat Saathoff we found, a happy mother, at the Santa Rosa and the father's face, beaming with joy, had revealed the good news ere words could convey the event. —On the twenty-fifth of October we rushed home to unite in holy marriage Mr. Clyde Jackson of Plainview, Texas, at present stationed in San Antonio, with Mabel Lindeburg, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lindeburg. The ring ceremony enhanced the solemnity of the occasion. Only near relatives attended the somewhat surprising festivity. After a wedding trip the young couple has settled down in San Antonio. Their many friends will join us in wishing them God's richest blessings for their future. —In the meantime we found Mrs. Rosa Boehle greatly improved for the time being, making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Boehle until fully recovered.

Another wedding is pending for next Wednesday, but we postpone details until after it has taken place, keeping you guessing.

For a few days the parsonage harbored some visitors from Chicago.

LIONS BRIDGE TOURNAMENT TO START NOV. 18

The Hondo Lions Club met in regular luncheon at noon Wednesday at the Armstrong Cafe. Marvin Grell was taken in as a new member. A program of songs was presented by Rosmarie Finger and Henry Martin Finger, accompanied by Mrs. C. D. Sadler at the piano.

The club went on record to underwrite the special train to Del Rio Friday, and the members assisted the committee in charge in soliciting fares to fill the needed quota.

Final arrangements were made for the second annual bridge tournament which starts November 18, at 8 p. m. in the Armstrong Hotel dining room. The tournament will run five consecutive weeks, every Tuesday night, and closing December 16th. The contestants having the highest scores in the first three weeks will play in a semi-final to determine who will play in the finals. The entrance fee will be $1.00 in advance and Culberson rules will govern the contests. There will be a prize awarded for high score each preliminary night and a grand prize awarded the winner of the finals.

COOPER'S CATTLE DIP AT FLY DRUG CO.

Ill., who love to make that trip to Texas an annual affair. They were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weeber who today have reported that on the way home they were greeted by a snow-flurry, impressing the contrast between the Sunny South and the wintry bleak north, although, in the meanwhile, our long forgotten heaters were nicely inaugurated for their first attempt to make the home comfortable after the mercury had tumbled to new lows.

A fine program with every man on deck was put up by the Luther League last Sunday and quite a number availed themselves of the opportunity to break the monotony with a series of novel and pleasant impressions. We append the program scheduled for December: Select readings, Miss Ethel Marie Lindeburg, Harold Bohlen, Mrs. Roy Bailey; vocal selections, Mr. Clarence Bohlen, Mrs. Herbert Brucks, Mr. Rolf Saathoff; instrumental number, Mrs. Clarence Bohlen.

Announcements for November 16: German service at 10:30; Sunday school and Bible class 9:30 A. M. No evening service. The Sunday school is getting ready for the Christmas program. Your children will enjoy taking part in it. Let's have them regularly, please. And come for the service and let the Lord speak to your yearning soul. Welcome, of course!

SPECIAL TRAIN TO CARRY FANS TO DEL RIO TODAY

Leaving the local depot at 4 p. m. today (Friday) a special train will carry the Hondo Owls football team, the Pep Squad, high school students and Hondo fans to Del Rio in time for the annual Del Rio-Hondo gridiron battle that night. Other fans are expected to join the throng all along the route.

The Hondo Lions Club is underwriting the train and members were active Thursday in securing additional fares to those who had already signed up with F. H. Hollmig, chairman. The quota needed is 190 and it is believed it will be oversubscribed by the time the train pulls out of the Hondo station.

Round trip tickets are $1.85. You can secure yours up until the time the train leaves, if you have not already done so.

ON GUARD

MEDINA COUNTY COUNCIL MET

The Medina County Council held its regular meeting at D'Hanis High School on Saturday, Nov. 8.

The meeting opened with song, "God Bless America," accompanied by Miss Rothe at the piano.

The business session was called to order by the chairman, Mrs. Earl Starnes.

Roll call was answered by the four membership units, D'Hanis, Hondo, LaCoste, and Yancey.

Mrs. Armin Bendele was appointed treasurer, combining offices of secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. Clarence Turner of D'Hanis was appointed extension chairman, No. 4.

There was a motion made and carried to reimburse Mrs. Earl Starnes for part expense to the State P. T. A. convention held at Austin.

A report from each delegate, Mrs. Quaid Martin, D'Hanis; Mrs. R. D. Bippert, LaCoste; Mrs. Earl Starnes, Mrs. Otis Laughinghouse, Mrs. Emmett Pope and Mrs. John Finger proved very interesting, each one reported the feature of the convention that impressed them most; stressing mostly on the main topic, "Democracy in the Home."

One of the most interesting features of the meeting was an unheated open discussion in which most every one participated, namely "Is The Medina County Council Accomplishing its Objectives or Are We Failing in Our Duties and Why?" Everyone resolved to carry on their duties more diligently.

The next Medina County Council will be held at Hondo the second Saturday in January, 1942.

Every school is urged to have representatives attend these meetings whether they are members or not.

Delicious refreshments were served by D'Hanis P. T. A. followed by a very pleasant social hour.

PUBLICITY CHAIRMAN DRAFT CALLING MANY MEDINA COUNTY MEN

Eleven Medina County selectees must report to the local draft board office in Hondo, at 10 a. m. Tuesday, November 18, in answer to call No. 27, we have been informed. From here the youths will be sent to the induction center at Fort Sam Houston.

Ten of the selectees are: Howard Anthony Rothe, John William Martin, William Desmond Herring, William Anton Poerner, Primitivo Ontoneroz, Hilmar Joseph Koch, Bruno Monreal, Gumesindo Hinojosa, Melvin George Barth and Ernest Martin Koehler. The eleventh, Paul John Keller, has already enlisted in the army.

Call No. 28, for negroes, has been passed in Medina County; also call No. 30.

On December 1st, three more Medina County men will report for induction under the Selective Service law, in answer to call No. 29. They are Santos Fernandez, Anthony Stephen Zerr and Milton Richard H. Theis.

A second call in December is for thirteen men. Medina County's quota for call No. 31. Induction day is December 10th. The draftees, however, have not been selected at this time.

Under the new ruling that selectees receive their physical examinations at the army examining station prior to being called, on December 15th twenty-two men from this county will report for physical check-ups in San Antonio. From this number will be chosen those selectees to fill the quota for call No. 32, not yet announced.

VETERAN HAS INTERESTING HOBBY

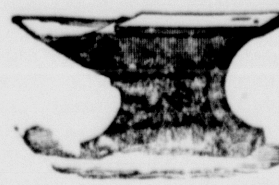

Mr. Ray L. Jennings, of Hondo, who saw service in World War No. 1 with the 169th Aerial Squadron overseas, has an unusual hobby which received its first impetus in those terrible days of 1917-1918, when a man on the field had to find something to "keep his mind off things". This collector's hobby began with saving odds and ends, such as a first bullet issued for his gun, a button off his coat, etc., which led to swapping small items with his buddies, until now he has a wide assortment of trappings and equipment representative of his experiences overseas and each article has a story to go with it. In addition to bullets and buttons from every sort of uniform from German to Anzac, Mr. Jennings has his helmet, his old shoes, money of the foreign lands, bits of airplanes, and many other interesting items.

The latest addition to his collection is four medals with their ribbons, representative of the service he saw during the war. The first is for service in Great Britain; two are French medals, one the Verdun medal and the other for St. Mihiel; the fourth is the Victory Medal issued by the United States, and has three bars and three stars, representing the other three medals. These were received by Mr. Jennings last weekend.

This interesting collection is on display in Mr. Jennings' office at the rear of the Raye Theatre. Ask him to show it to you sometime.

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

These strikes all over, they get settled one day and next week they break out again—and something else has to be settled. It is all one-sided now. The folks in the saddle are ridin' high and wide. While the going is good, they are going.

It's not a matter of the right wages or the right working conditions, or the right anything else except one thing. It is a closed shop they want, where the boss takes out the dues from each pay envelope and hands it over to the local chieftan—CIO or whoever is running the local shebang, and has the biggest fist.

But some day it will backfire, and the person getting hurt worst will be the very fellow who has allowed his envelope to be fumbled with most.

If this ALL-TIME WEAK SISTER and YES SIR CONGRESS down on the palaverin' Potomac would take the bit in its teeth for a part of one day only, and fumigate our NLRB, it would not need to hang its head, a few years hence, when its grandson grows up and says, "Grandpa, tell me about the time when you was Senator."

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA

—o—

Every member of Congress knows, opines the Fort Worth Press editorializing on the proposition to arm our merchant ships, this is a vote on undeclared naval and air war. But the public does not know. Lots of people believe the committee report that "any assumption that by the provisions of this resolution our status of neutrality will be changed is entirely erroneous." The public has been fooled so often about this war business that there is going to be a bitter reaction some day. To undermine faith in the integrity of the democratic method at a time of world crisis is an exceedingly dangerous political trick. So far not one major decision on this issue has been frank. The Neutrality Act was first amended in 1939, on the Administration's plea that this would prevent involvement. Lend-Lease was passed with the same pledge, plus a commitment against delivery and convoys. Even as recently as the House vote on arming merchantmen, the Administration feared to include repeal of the ban on American deliveries to belligerent ports through combat zones—a step toward frankness that has now been forced in the Senate by Republican interventionists. The United States already is part way in a shooting war by Presidential order, without Congressional consent—far enough in that many members opposing intervention think the President, by an accomplished fact, has destroyed Congress' constitutional power of choice. And this is the leadership forced by twenty-seven million voters on the more than a hundred million of their fellow citizens, says we!

—o—

Boyce House in his "I Give You Texas" column enumerates these NINE WAYS to kill a good town:

1. Don't attend any civic meetings and if you go, arrive late.
2. Never accept an office. It is easier to criticize than to do things.
3. Do nothing more than absolutely necessary, but when others use their ability to help matters along, howl that the town is being run by a clique.
4. If you have a suggestion to offer, do not think of going to the authorities in charge—just yell to the world at large.
5. Get "sore" if you're not appointed on a committee, such as the park board, cemetery board, or public relations committee; but if you are appointed do not attend committee meetings.
6. Get good and mad at some members of the organization.
7. Be pessimistic about every proposal to expand trade and promote the interests of the town.
8. Watch the proceedings of the local school board and town council, and point out the errors of their ways to everyone who will stop long enough to listen.
9. Encourage your wife and relatives to do their shopping out of town.

Long an institution with the State Fair, the banquet serves as a tribute to the state's livestock and agricultural leaders for Texas' increasingly bright spot in the nation's market for purebred and finished livestock. About 1500 are expected to attend the banquet. The association was organized at a meeting in Midland in 1928. Attending were Frank P. Holland Jr., president of the association, W. B. Mr. Telephone will wear plastic TO SAVE METAL FOR UNCLE SAM

We're ready with a wartime telephone in which plastic and steel replace the more vital defense metals—zinc, aluminum, magnesium. It's not a makeshift telephone—it's a good telephone.

In the months ahead, however, you may find it hard to get one. Where all lines in our cables are taken up we can't add new customers quickly, because nearly all the additional cable we can get is required for vital defense construction.

We're making every substitution, salvaging every bit of usable equipment to keep up with orders as well as we can.

We hope that our record over more than 60 years is evidence that we will always be doing our best to keep your service as good as conditions permit.

H. H. Fennell, of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, cautions Southern Plains farmers against unnecessarily burning their wheat straw and stubble. Many farmers, he said, are deliberately starting fires that will destroy crop production of future years and add to soil erosion hazards. An unusually large production of wheat straw joined an increase of insects to influence many farmers to burn straw to make plowing easier and destroy insect invaders, Fennell explained.

E. R. LEINWEBER CO. TO SHOW HOLLYWOOD PICTURE IN HONDO

"Uncle Joe," starring Slim Summerville, Zasu Pitts, and Gale Storm to be main feature of All Day Farmer's Program on Nov. 18th. Presented by local John Deere Dealer.

Free to farmers, in this and neighboring communities is the big John Deere Day Movie Program to be held at the Raye Theatre on Nov. 18th.

According to E. R. Leinweber Co., local John Deere dealer, this year's John Deere Day Movie Program will appeal to everyone who has anything to do with farming. E. R. Leinweber Co. extends a cordial invitation to every farmer, farmer's wife, and farm boy to come to this big day of entertainment and education.

The main attraction, "Uncle Joe," is a lively, all-talking picture produced in Hollywood this past summer for this occasion. It's a story of a young girl who thinks she's in love, a bachelor uncle who keeps house for himself, and a widow about to lose her home. Packed with laughs, sentiment and catchy music, this very human story will long be remembered by those who see it.

In addition to such stars as Slim Summerville, Zasu Pitts, and Gale Storm, the cast includes Dorothy Peterson, William Davidson, Dick Hogan, Frank Coghlan, Jr., James Butler, Maynard Holmes, Howard Hickman, and John Holland.

In addition to "Uncle Joe," four other new, all-talking pictures will be shown. They include, "The Shepherds of Friendly Valley," in which Fred Sheppard, that old friend of previous John Deere Days, brings us much of his wholesome philosophy of life—"A Line on Combines," an educational picture which takes you "behind the scenes" in building John Deere Combines—"Tractor Fuels and Tractors," an enlightening picture that will appeal to farmers interested in lowering their production costs—and a short news reel of "What's New in Farm Equipment for 1942."

According to E. R. Leinweber Co., admission to the John Deere Show will be by ticket only. Any farmer who has not received tickets can get them by inquiring at his store before the day of the show.

RATTLERS TO BATTLE TEXAS A. & I. JAVELINAS IN ALAMO STADIUM SATURDAY

San Antonio, Nov. 12.—The St. Mary's University Rattlers, having seen their undefeated record shattered at the hands of West Texas State Buffalos 40-21 last week, are this week focussing all their attention on what promises to be their toughest assignment of the season: their Homecoming tilt with the Texas A. & I. McDowell was elected president; Mrs. Volney Boon, vice-president; and Mrs. J. B. Dixon, secretary-treasurer. Rev. C. Garcia, pastor of St. John the Evangelist Church, outlined the purpose of the study club. The meeting was concluded with a social hour, with the hostess serving refreshments of sandwiches and punch.

Mrs. Dixon and Mrs. Frank L. Vance are arranging for the program of study which will get under way as soon as complete organization is made. All ladies of St. John's parish wishing to join the study group are asked to call Mrs. Dixon.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, November 25, at the home of Mrs. Vance.

RED CROSS DRIVE ON

This week in Hondo the Red Cross drive for membership is being conducted by the Boy Scouts, Troop No. 158, H. Z. Windrow Scoutmaster, has charge of the west side of town while the troop directed by Frank L. Vance, is canvassing the east side.

Medina County's roll call quota has been about $600 or less, thus the 1942 goal is more difficult to reach and will require the cooperation and generosity of everyone in the county. Do not wait to be solicited for your membership dues. If you wish to assist in this worthy cause you may leave your contribution at the bank, post office, Fly Drug Co., Windrow Drug Store, Hollmig's Dress Shop, or the local Red Cross headquarters in the Rothe building.

"Five mornings a week, nine months a year, we mothers of Texas get our children ready for school.

"In our home and a million other Texas homes, that's one of the first and most important duties of a mother's day. Sometimes Dad finds out what a job it is when he has to do it by himself."

All of us want our children to have the best education possible. Most of us look to the public schools for this.

Fortunately, Texas has the best public schools in the South. Helping to build and operate them is the Texas petroleum industry which pays 24 million dollars a year in taxes for school purposes.

These petroleum taxes pay an average of one-fourth the cost of educating our children. Altogether, they meet the entire expense of schooling nearly 400,000 Texas boys and girls.

In addition, oil has contributed substantially to the 70 million dollar permanent school fund. Oil is also responsible for much of the 30 million dollar permanent university fund, which has made possible the expansion of the University of Texas and A. & M. College.

Furthermore, taxes on petroleum products add another 11½ million dollars a year for the schools of our State.

Our children get a better education today because of the Texas petroleum industry.

THE TRUE TEST OF SINCERITY

BY FRED W. DAVIS

"But remember well, that the attitude and method—the way we do things, is nearly always the measure of our sincerity."—Candidate Roosevelt, Butte, Montana, Sept. 10, 1932.

The American people know the promises made by Candidate Roosevelt personally, in 1932, and the promises of the platform which he endorsed "100 per cent" were almost all broken. But, through the combined influence of propaganda, subsidies, doles, and wholesale pork-barrel appropriations the broken promises of the first term were overwhelmingly endorsed by the American people in the election of 1936.

The seeking of further dictatorial powers, such as the supreme court domination and absolute budget control, were kept in the back-ground until after the election. So the only real issue was the continuation of Santa Claus. But when the 1940 campaign came around the American people had a serious concern aside from a continuous raid on the treasury, namely whether we were going, this time, to stay out of the war.

The Republicans nominated Wendell Wilkie, who promised to be almost as generous a Santa Claus as Roosevelt, but said he would do it more fairly. And he insistently and eloquently declared he would never send an American boy to a foreign land to be killed, but would build our home defenses so strong no combination of powers would dare to strike. That made it a little dangerous for Roosevelt who had forced the Democratic party to draft him for a third term. So the drafted Roosevelt who didn't want to be president any longer (?) broke the silence he said he was going to keep and went on the air just before election and solemnly assured the American mothers he would never get their boys into any foreign wars unless we were attacked. He said he hated "wah" and all his efforts had been to keep us out. Both political platforms had declared against war.

We may dismiss Wilkie. He is but a private citizen and if the American people are smart he will remain a private citizen. However, if they care no more about his keeping his word than they have Roosevelt, Wilkie's about-face will not hurt him any. In fact, it should endear him to the New Dealers. But Roosevelt's acts are different, because they are backed by the power of the American people—even to the giving of their lives.

Let us go back to the quotation that heads this article by repeating it: "But remember well, that the attitude and method—the way we do things, is nearly always the measure of our sincerity." His attitude, after promising to avoid war, is beyond debate. It has been one of extreme belligerency. Denunciation and threats have been in every proclamation. He has taken no attitude that harmonized with his solemn promise to stay out of war. He has never assured the warring nations that he was going to reflect the wishes of the American people and stand by his promises by being consistently neutral and would go to war only upon provocations so strong they could be considered as overt acts of war. We all know he has not. So much for his "attitude." Now what about his method?

In the lend-lease Act he asked the Congress to give him dictatorial powers over international affairs. This was followed by a proclamation making us the arsenal of the so-called democratic peoples of the whole earth. In this world-wide promise of help to every nation that will fight the Axis powers he does not only bitterly denounce but declares he will help destroy them and hints at taking military objectives far beyond this hemisphere. He followed this by setting up in Iceland. And, I understand, he is spending American money in Ireland. He assumes the right to establish bases anywhere he deems necessary to our defense, but if the axis powers should set up first in any of these places, even though they are parts of Europe, and not America, such acts would be considered hostile. Is this the way to stay out of war or to get into war?

Setting up in Iceland and other acts were seemingly going to fall short of a shooting war. So when a submarine and one of our ships clashed off the coast of Iceland and another one was bombed in the Red Sea these incidents gave grounds for an attitude which makes it impossible to avoid a shooting war much longer. The president says our ships will go anywhere on the seven seas he thinks necessary for our defense, and the mere presence of axis submarines in the same waters will constitute an act of hostility and they will be fired upon at sight. In the face of this declaration what do you suppose the commanders of the submarines will be told to do? Run and hope they won't be seen and destroyed, or shoot on sight, knowing that that is the intention of the other fellow? The president based his shoot-at-sight order upon the principle of freedom of the seas. The freedom of the seas is an academic principle which is never observed unless the country claiming it is strong enough to back its demand. Warring nations simply will not permit the desires or conveniences of other nations to interfere with their military necessities. But aside from this, the principle applies to neutral nations only and we are not neutral. We are an avowed belligerent pledged to the total destruction of one of the warring sides.

We let England trample under the principle of freedom of the seas at will during the other war. She even denied our right to trade with neutral countries. Now, if German or Italian submarines sink any of our ships carrying war supplies to the enemies of the nations they are certainly acting in self-defense. To argue otherwise would be to say such supplies are of no military benefit.

Congressman Martin Dies, in the last issue of Fletcher's Farming, lamented that the American people are not being told the truth. One truth the American people should especially know is, what we are going to war for. It can be told in one sentence. It is to protect the British Empire. We saved their hides once and the thanks we got were sneers and contempt. England and France sat down and let Hitler prepare after he had published in book form just what he intended to do. Did they expect to get us to again furnish them millions of men and billions of dollars? It is tragic for us to assume the burden of others wars which we do not bring about. But to declare them to be our wars and in self-defense we must by force of arms go to the rescue of every nation that stronger nations have invaded is a double tragedy. To attempt it will make us more military than Rome under the Caesars, and hold out false hopes to small nations. They will expect help they can never get but not realize it until too late. The near East has some such unfortunate small countries now.

All peoples fighting the axis powers are referred to as democracies. None of them are democracies, and some are cruel monarchies, Russia being the Big Bear of them all. The war-mongers say if you are not for England, Russia, et al, you are for Germany. They don't seem to think it possible that anyone could be for his country as against any or all the rest of the world. Stephen A. Douglas once said if Lincoln didn't want a negro woman in his kitchen as a slave he must want her in his parlor as his wife. Lincoln replied that there was no necessity for either. Ninety-nine people out of every one hundred want this country to be prepared to defend the world, if the necessity should arise. But most of them are opposed to fighting other people's wars. I am personally too old to go to war, and have no children. But I know we act wiser when we attend to our business and let the others alone. I do not believe the lives of American boys are pledged to defend any country on earth except this one. And the place to defend this country is here. The American people think the same way until war hysteria heats up their blood. The Neutrality Act and the platform of both political parties prove this statement. And there is not a person capable of staying out of a feeble-minded institution but what knows that no combination of powers on earth could successfully invade this country. I fear the Communists of this country—many of them in high official positions—more than I fear any war made dictator in other countries. But let me say this: if and when we get into a shooting war my criticism is over and my all will be for this the grandest nation that ever graced the pages of history.

$500.00 Reward

I will pay the above reward for the first arrest and conviction of a party or parties who are stealing my sheep or goats.
D. W. SHORT.

I know there are people who will denounce this article and pronounce me a pro-German. In fact, there are people willing for American boys to be shell-shocked, blinded, maimed or torn to shreds in some foreign land for the freedom of speech for people in other countries, while joining or inciting mobs to deny it here. The mayor of Austin said publicly it might not be safe for Lindbergh or Wheeler to try to speak in Austin. Although the right age the mayor did not serve in the last war and, of course, does not expect to serve in this one. I apologize to no one for expressing my views in an effort to get this nation to take the chip off its shoulder and tend to its own business. My people were here from the beginning. The first commissioned officer to die for American liberty was Capt. Isaac Davis. He fell on Concord bridge. But a Davis boy 14 years old got revenge by downing seven British soldiers in that first conflict.

I began this article with a quotation from Franklin D. Roosevelt. I will now close with a quotation from Theodore Roosevelt. Quote: "There are few more revolting types of public immorality, more damaging to public conscience, and more deeply discreditable to those responsible for them, than those which exhibit a readiness to make promises before election, coupled with an equal readiness to repudiate them afterwards."

GIANT OCTOPUS, KILLER WITH WHALE EXHIBIT

Pictured above is a giant octopus, commonly known as the devil fish, which is dreaded by the deep sea diver more than any other inhabitant of the ocean.

The one pictured here, having a spread of more than 12 feet, was captured recently off the southern coast of California and will be exhibited in Hondo, Saturday, November 15, as one of the many oddities of the mammoth whale exhibit which will be located on the railroad siding at the Southern Pacific Depot.

The exhibition will be continuous from noon until 11 p. m. and all children under 14 years of age will be admitted free when accompanied with adults.

Washington Snapshots

by JAMES PRESTON

Washington is giving a lot of belated attention these hectic days to the problem of the small businessman.

On September 4, the President appointed Floyd B. Odum to head a Division of Contract Distribution for the OPM. Mr. Odum, after a rapid survey of the situation in which the small businessman found himself, said his job should have been started six months or maybe a year before. Some 20,000 small industries had "died overnight" when England turned to all-out war production, and he's determined to prevent that kind of dislocation resulting from all-out defense here if he can.

Mr. Odum has taken on a job of gigantic proportions. He's up against the fact that neither the Army nor Navy people believe small business and defense can be mixed. They look upon the subcontracting program as a type of "relief," necessary politically, but a thorn in the side of defense. The big companies, having patriotically accepted contracts forced upon them by government demand, are being accused of hogging the work which actually government officials should have broken up and spread throughout industry. Military officials have urged that many small producers are high-cost producers, failing to realize that in times of emergency, higher cost producers have their place. A time of emergency is certainly a time for utilizing all machines, all equipment, all producers.

Many businessmen warned the Administration time and again that small business must be utilized more fully. The National Association of Manufacturers early this year instituted a self-census by industry whereby every manufacturer, no matter how small, was urged to register, to make known his facilities available for defense contracts or subcontracts. More than 18,000 individual concerns were registered, in addition to about 12,000 which the armed services had already surveyed. If the data was filed with the OPM. Manufacturers in many small towns are arranged to pool their facilities in the plan fashioned after that used in York, Pa. And some startling results were achieved by industry's own efforts to spread the work. For example, in the New York City area more than $800,000,000 of defense work is sublet. In the Rochester, N. Y., area, the 170 prime contractors let work to 2,000 main subcontractors who in turn spread the work out even wider. But such efforts left many communities still untouched.

Mr. Odum found when he took office that the government contract service had 39 field offices in September. He plans to have 200 offices and to employ 4,000 persons (all but 400 in the field). He has requested a budget of $25,000,000.

tain materials enough to keep alive?

With the sights of the defense efforts being raised to a point which envisions the use of all critical raw materials which can be produced in the two Americas, there is no question that material for non-defense industry will be scarcer and scarcer. The doubled tank program just announced is just the beginning of a tremendously broadened defense program all along the line. Upon Capitol Hill, therefore, Mr. Congressman is wondering how to answer letters asking how defense will affect this and that community. He is quietly praying Mr. Odum will bring forth a miracle.

DEFENSE BOND QUIZ

Q. When will the "drive" to sell Defense Savings Bonds begin?

A. There will be no "drive". Many people think of the Defense Savings Program as like the Liberty Loan campaigns of the first World War, which were conducted for stated periods to raise specific quotas. The Defense Savings Program is a long-range, continuing effort to stimulate the public to buy more and more Defense Bonds and Stamps month by month, and is essentially a program to promote mass saving, as well as to provide money for defense.

Q. Are the Defense Savings Stamps sold at retail stores exchangeable for Defense Savings Bonds?

A. Yes. They are the same as Stamps on sale at post offices and elsewhere.

Note.—To buy Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office, bank, or savings and loan association; or write to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C. Also Stamps now are on sale at retail stores.

FOOD FOR FREEDOM

Secretary Wickard says, "Food for the war and write the peace." What are you doing to the peace writing of this great need?

We need: FOOD TO FEED OUR PEOPLE PROPERLY. Fifty per cent of the Service Drafts of this nation have been turned down for lack of service because of malnutrition. FOOD FOR THE DEMOCRACIES. FIGHTING FREEDOM'S BATTLES. FOOD FOR EUROPE'S STARVING MILLIONS after the war is over.

To do this great task of providing for others and ourselves with enough food we must have the following: 4% increase in Dairy Production. 10% increase in Poultry Production. 17% increase in Swine.

The county goals will be distributed among the farmers of the county. Every farmer will be visited and to make a 1942 farm plan that will contribute to the meeting of the goal. It will all be voluntary.

When the plans are added up the county will have for the first time in history a complete picture of the anticipated farm production for the coming year. The full mobilized length of American farms will be presented in these plans. These plans, and the complete production program they stand for, will be the instance that any great industry planned to meet and fill the real needs of the people.

The Nation will protect farmers in effort! Already the national programs afford broad price income support for farm families. In addition, the prices of products for which increases are especially requested by proclamation of the Secretary of Agriculture—milk, milk products, eggs, hogs and chickens—will be supported to the extent of funds available at not less than 65% of parity at least December 31, 1942.

All agricultural agencies are ready to help the farmers in this gigantic production program. The full length of the United States Department of Agriculture agencies is available to farmers through state and our own Medina County.

What To Do

Check your farm to see what products can be increased, maintaining reduced in line with national needs.

Begin now to lay in supplies of fertilizers, etc., you will need to carry out your 1942 production plan. Be ready to tell your community chairman of your 1942 plans.

Begin now to carry out the plan you make for 1942.

FOOD FOR FREEDOM! Your plan can help! Are you willing to carry your part with this valuable program?

VELMA HAMBLETON, Medina County H. D. Agent.

SCHOOL NEWS

From The Owl:

OWLS ADD ANOTHER VICTORY TO THEIR LIST

The Hondo Owls added another victory to their list last Friday night when they defeated the Brackettville Tigers at Brackettville by the score of 33 to 0. The Tigers had several injured men who were unable to play, while the Owls were in good condition.

The Owls' ground and air attack clicked well and the defense was strong. The Tigers did an unusual amount of passing from the "spread" formation.

To begin the game, Brackett kicked off to the Owls who, after a series of plays, made one first down. Then they fumbled and Brackett recovered. Schuehle blocked Brackett's punt on the Owls' 40 yard line, and after 6 yards gain, the Owls punted to Brackett's 20 yard line. On 3rd down the Owls blocked another punt but Brackett recovered. Then they succeeded in getting off a punt to Ney who was nailed after no gain. The Owls again fumbled and the ball was recovered by Brackett. After numerous incomplete passes, the Tigers again punted to Ney and he returned it 25 yards. After Ney made one first down, Hollmig had to punt to Brackett's 10 yard line. The Tigers then made three first downs on passes as the first quarter ended, score 0 to 0.

2nd Quarter

Ney returned Brackett's punt 20 yards and then made a first down. Hollmig completed a pass to Finger on the next play good for 30 more yards. Dawson then carried on a double reverse for 25 yards. Hollmig then completed a pass to Dawson for a touchdown and Finger converted.

Finger then kicked off to Brackett's 5 yard line and they returned the ball 20 yards. Then the Tigers made a first down on a complete pass. But they were later forced to punt to the Owls' 15 yard line. Hollmig got off a good quick-kick to Brackett's 30 yard line. After completing one pass the Tigers lost the ball on an interception by Claude Schuehle on Hondo's 48 yard line. On the next play Hollmig tossed a "beautiful" pass to Finger to Brackett's 3 yard line. Hollmig was standing on his own 30 yard line when he threw the pass. On the next play Finger tallied but failed to convert.

Then Finger kicked off to Brackett's 5 yard line, and they returned it 24 yards as the first half ended. Score: Hondo, 13; Brackettville, 0.

3rd Quarter

Finger kicked off for the Owls to Brackett's goal line and the ball was returned 15 yards. On an attempted punt by Brackett, the Owls were unnecessarily rough and received a 15 yard penalty. Brackett then got off a punt to the Owls, and after two plays the Owls netted a first down. But they were unable to get another one so Hollmig punted to Brackett's 25 yard line. After failing to make any yardage, the Tigers punted to their own 45 yard line. The Owls completed one out of four passes for 25 yards. Then Hollmig tossed to Finger for another score, and Finger converted.

Finger kicked off again for the Owls to Brackett's 15 yard line, and they returned it to the 26 yard line, as the 3rd quarter ended. Score: Hondo, 20; Brackett, 0.

4th Quarter

Not being able to gain, Brackett punted to Ney who returned the ball to Brackett's 35 yard line. After Dawson and Hollmig had each made a first down, Finger went across for another touchdown but he failed to convert.

Then as usual, Finger kicked off to Brackett's 10 yard line and it was returned 13 yards. Again the Owls line held and Brackett was forced to punt to Ney who was then spilled on the Owl 45 yard line. On the first play Finger broke loose for a 55 yard gallop and another touchdown. He also converted.

Again Finger sent the ball sailing to the Brackett 20 yard line on the kick-off and the Tigers returned it 10 yards. After 1 first down they punted to the Owls 20 yard line. In two consecutive plays Dawson made 2 first downs. The game ended with Hondo the victor by a wide margin. Score: Hondo, 33; Brackett, 0.
